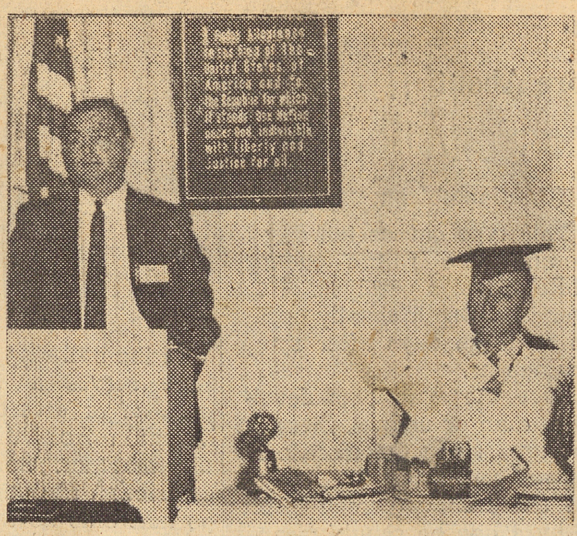
Graduates with "Honors"



WELL COVERED WITH INSURANCE ... Merv Willoughby, outgoing president of the Campbell Rotary Club, was subjected to the traditional "debunking" when he stepped out of office on Monday. Merv, a top New York Life Insurance agent, was forced to "buy" all types of "insurance" policies during the debunking ceremonies. He was given a cap and gown symbolic of the honorary award of "professor of insurance" and the various policies were then pinned to his robe of office by members of the debunking committee. In the photo on the left, Merv in a pensive mood listens while Les Harmon, master of ceremonies, explains the "reasons" he needs the policies during the coming year. In the other picture, Neal Royer, new president, assumes office, while the well-covered insurance man sits and listens as Neal tells club members that he will try to follow in his predecessor's footsteps. Apartment Plans Meet Vigorous Disapproval

Despite the objections of residents of Los Ranchitos tract to the apartments planned for their area which they claim are "nothing better than a group of army barracks", there is apparently nothing that the City Council can do about it.

City Attorney Joseph Bonacina told the Council Monday night that because the Planning Commission has already approved the plans for eight two-story 8-unit dwellings planned for the Los Ranchitos area, any change in zoning at this time, in his opinion, could not be supported by law.

At a previous meeting (June 17) when Los Ranchitos residents first voiced their opposition, Bonacina had been directed by the City Council to see if it were possible for the City to stop the apartment house development. The Planning Commission had okayed the apartments at the June 6 meeting.

Los Ranchitos residents maintain that the apartments would lessen the valuation of their residential property and that the area had been originally set aside for a shopping center.

At the June 17 meeting more than 40 residents from the area with Steve Carter, 1774 Palo Santo Drive, as their spokesman, voiced their protests orally. On Monday, a petition signed by almost all the 100 homeowners in the tract was presented to the City Council. A. H. Norman, of 1620 Villarita, acted as spokesman at Monday's meeting.

Any action of the Planning Commission can be appealed, Bonacina noted in his ruling, but the appeal must be filed within 10 days and must follow a certain set legal procedure.

William E. Foley, representing the Ad-More company, which submitted the plans for the apartments, was present at the meeting. He showed the proposed plans to the Council and raised a chuckle when he began his explanation by saying, "I concur with the city attorney's opinion."

Foley also showed the plans to Norman, who was reprsenting the Home Owners' Association of Los Ranchitos. Norman, in turn, displayed the plans to the other members. Consensus of the group was that the plans indicated that the buildings would be nothing better than "army barracks"; according to Roger Meagher, 1730 Palo Santo Drive, an officer of the residential association.

The multiple dwellings will face La Pradera Drive (between Campbell Ave. and San Tomas-Aquino Road) and the incensed residents claim that their square-like unattractive appearance will greatly detract from the residential area. Meagher said that the "front elevation is nothing more than a plain wall, two stories high with no openings at all."

Recalling that Nestor Barrett, city planning consultant, has publicly said that he thought the plans for the apartments were "atrocious and a mess," Meagher said that members of the homeowners association felt the Planning Commission should have checked more thoroughly into the dwellings before giving approval.

Remodeling Start On Towne Pride

Work will start Monday on the remodeling of the building housing the Towne Pride Mart, 515 E. Campbell Ave., which was gutted by a disastrous fire on June 16. William Lloyd, of the Ainsley Corporation, owners of the building said that the remodeling work is expected to be completed in 60 days or less.

Lloyd said that the plans call for changing the entire store front and new type windows and stone and redwood finish are part of the major changes planned and the entire interior will be redone.

In addition, Lloyd said, the plans call for expanding the store to take in the former Sanitation District 4 office and the construction of new warehouse space.

Pete Lico, owner of the market, said that he expects that when the remodeling job is completed he will have 25 per cent more floor space in the market itself and double the storage space than he had previously.

LEGION IN CAMPBELL

The public hearing before the County Planning Commission on the application of the West Valley American Legion Post No. 158 for a use permit for a non-commercial club on the east side of E. Parr Ave., which was scheduled for Wednesday of this week was cancelled, county officials announced. The county now has no jurisdiction in the matter, for the property officially came into the City of Campbell on June 20.

On The Line in Campbell

Among the political bigwigs of the county's Democratic circles, the name of Mayor John M. Chargin of Campbell is being mentioned as a possible Democratic standard-bearer for assemblyman for the 29th district, a position now held by Bruce Allen.

—o—

The Board of Supervisors this week approved a tentative budget for the county for 1957-58 of 37½ million dollars. Although the budget is four and a quarter million dollars above last year's, it is expected that it will require only an addition of two or three cents on the property tax rate. Raises in assessed valuation in the county will make up the difference.

—o—

Raymond F. Triplett, of Campbell, a New York Life Insurance representative, was among the more than 900 top life insurance salesmen who attended the annual meeting of the Million Dollar Round Table at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. Membership in the club is limited to those who have sold at least a million dollars of life insurance in 1956.

Delbert Joe Veitenheimer, 19, of Campbell, who was among the many escapees from the county jail last week, was apprehended on Tuesday in Southern Oregon along with two other fellow-prisoners. Veitenheimer has established a record as a leader of a local robbery gang.

—o—

Winchester Road from Stevens Creek to the Campbell city limits will eventually be a six-lane highway lined with apartment-house dwellings, according to the plans of both the Planning Commission and City Council of San Jose.

—o—

Frank Grace, Maurice Fleming and Arthur Davis, local high school agriculture instructors, were among the 400 ag teachers who met recently on the Cal Poly campus for a five-day panel program thetmed: "A Road Map to Progress in Agriculture."

—o—

The Contractors' State License Board will issue a general building contractors' license to Charles L. Carothers, 775 Central Ave., Campbell within 20 days, provided no protests are received.

Council Plans Hike to Check Missing Fence

In an effort to once and for all settle Campbell's own particular "whodunit", "The Case of the Missing Fence" the local Councilmen are to become "fence-walkers".

The City Fathers by hiking around Nelson Bros. Trucking on Foote St. hope to be able to discover just where the missing fence, one of the main causes for friction between neighboring residents and Nelson Bros. should go.

The trucking firm has been ordered to erect a fence around its operation in compliance with the city ordinance. Everyone is pretty well agreed where the fence should go on three sides, especially next to the residences. It's that fourth wall that's giving the trouble.

Acting on Mayor John M. Chargin's suggestion but with Councilman Richard Morton dissenting, the Council decided to see for themselves whether the fence on the Foot St. side was necessary.

The residents in the area adjacent to Nelson Bros. have objected to the operation of the company because of the noise, dirt and traffic conditions that exist.

All that remains to solve "The Case of Missing Fence" is to find whether the fence should have three or four sides to it.

The City Fathers hope to find this out by their enforced hike.

Lack of Master Street Plan Delays Industry

Lack of a master street plan for the new industrial park at the south city limits of Campbell is apparently holding up the development of the area. This was determined Monday night, and as a result the City Planning Commission was directed by letter from the City Council to speed up action on the street plan.

The matter came to a head at Monday's Council meeting when the City Fathers learned that the Planning Commission was awaiting specific instructions from the Council. The Commision had asked the Council at a previous meeting what action was desired on a petition presented by 28 property owners in the industrial area. The petitioners had requested that an assessment district be formed to obtain the necessary street and other improvements. The petition had been presented on June 3 and had been referred to the city attorney and the Planning Commission. But the Planners felt they needed more instructions as to what was desired by the Council.

The Council emphasized that a street plan was paramount whether a new railroad crossing (another improvement problem) was obtained or not. City Attorney Joseph Bonacina had ruled that accepting Dell Ave. as a city street without having a railroad crossing could possibly make the city liable. Based on this ruling the Commissioners were hesitant about approving any development on Dell Ave. The Public Utilities Commission of the state must okay any new railroad crossing.

Present at the Council meeting was R. L. Townsend, of the Tweco Products Co., of Wichita, Kansas. He plans to build on acreage purchased in the industrial park, but has been faced with delays from the very start, he told the Council.

He sharply criticized the Planning Commission for "sitting on" the assessment district proposal and for not developing a street plan. He pointed out the Planners were unable to act on his application for a variance so that he could start building because there has been no plan.

The Council assured Townsend that every means would be taken to speed up action for a street plan. The Planning Commission has postponed any approvals for building in the area until August 6 when it is hoped that not only a street plan will have been completed, but that some indication will have been made as to where the new Controlled Manufacturing Zone, now pending before the Council, will apply.

Trailer Court Defies Council

Although denied a variance by the Planning Commission, to operate a trailer court at 186 S. Dillon Ave., Mrs. Gladys Crump, through her attorney, John E. Thorne, on Monday notified the City Council that she plans to go ahead and put trailers on her premises anyway.

In a letter to the Council, Thorne claimed that he has evidence on file showing that the property had been used as a trailer camp and trailer court since 1946 and thus would not be affected by the Campbell zoning ordinance adopted in 1952. The attorney said that it was his belief that the property can be continued as a trailer camp as a non-conforming use.

The denial of the variance was by a split vote of the Planning Commission and was also upheld on its subsequent appeal to the City Council also by a split vote.

The Council on Monday referred the matter to the city attorney.

School Board Members Elect New Officers

William Lloyd and Ed Merrill will serve as president of the board of trustees for the high school and elementary boards, respectively, for the coming year. Merrill replaces John Dixon while Lloyd was reelected.

Norman A. Storer and Howard R. Atkinson became new members of the elementary board this week. Tom Mansfield will serve as clerk.

On the high school board, Joseph V. Gomes, a member since 1941, was reelected. The second member is William L. Murphy. Other members include R. E. Bishop and E. M. (Doc) Arends. Gomes was reelected by the board to serve as clerk.

Route 5 Construction To Start on Monday

Contracts totaling $5,419,268 for construction of the new 8.8 mile freeway from Los Gatos to San Jose were awarded this week, it was announced by State Senator John F. Thompson.

Plans call for grading and paving and the construction of 15 bridges and three pumphouses between Santa Cruz avenue in Los Gatos and Bascom avenue in San Jose, and between Tait avenue and new Sign Route 17 in Los Gatos.

Ball and Simpson, contractors awarded a share of the project announced that work will begin Monday, July 8.

Building Keeps Up Fast Pace

Building permits totaling $277,070 were issued by the city of Campbell for the month of June it was announced by the building inspector's office.

Permits were granted for twelve single family dwellings, bank buildings, garages, patios, a swimming pool, storage shed, a sign and a permit to demolish a building.

Dura Style Homes received permission to build four single family dwellings on North Victor avenue ranging in price from $9920 to $10,400. American Equities had five permits reissued for houses to be constructed on Buddlawn Way. The dwellings are valued at $8000.

The new American Trust Building will be constructed at the southwest corner of Second street and East Campbell at a cost of $144,944. Barnhart Construction is building the new branch.

The building inspector's office also announced that permits issued during the first six months of 1957 totaled $1,597,225. The recent building trend in Campbell is evidenced by the fact that $1,076,595 of the six month's total was issued during April, May and June.

Other permits issued included: Anthony Slavich, 369 E. Campbell, 500, demolition; C. Atkinson, 149 Catalpa Lane, $1500, swimming pool; Campbell Lumber Co. 743 S. Winchester, $1120 storage shed; Campbell Sporting Goods, 220 E. Campbell, $170, sign; Youngbuilders Inc., 890 N. Monica Lane, $14,433, dwelling; W. L. Blodgett, 771 W. First the Rabies Shot . . . then the License

"It's a Dog's Life" ... But You Gotta Do It

"I'D LIKE MY LICENSE, PLEASE ... "Every dog must have his day" on July 1, especially in Campbell when the annual dog licenses are due. Before licenses are issued at the City Hall, however, proof that anti-rabies vaccination has been administered must be furnished. In the above picture, Mrs. Evelyn Adamson, deputy city clerk, is explaining to "Checkers", a female Boxer, just what has to be done about this license business. (Ed. note: Mr. and Mrs. George Vierhus of The Press belong to "Checkers".) Campbell Press photo.

By Lynn Manley

Dog licensing time has rolled around again and if your dog isn't sporting a current license, he's liable to end up in the county pound since 1957-58 tags were due July 1. Dog licenses for Campbell pets may be obtained at the City Hall after the dog has been vaccinated and upon payment of a $1 fee.

Rabies is a subject seldom uttered by people and especially in Santa Clara County where no cases have been reported for almost ten months. However, it is a continuing serious problem and one that can be met only through the cooperation of all citizens—whether dog owners or not.

In neighboring Monterey County, 32 residents are currently undergoing the Pasteur treatment for having been exposed to rabid animals. In the past two months, seventeen dogs and one skunk have been found rabid. In Santa Clara County, only two cases have been reported in the past year, one in a skunk and one in a bat. In each case, children were bitten by the affected animals.

Other Animals

Rabies has been reported in various animals in California including coyotes, foxes, bats, bobcats, cattle, sheep, goats, horses and the most common carrier, dogs. Ninety-one per cent of the cases occur in dogs.

One public fallacy, according to the County Health Department is that the majority of rabid cases occur in the summer during hot days. This is not true since rabies can and does occur at any time of the year.

Licensing and vaccination have sharply decreased the number of cases, however, unless a strict program is maintained by authorities and citizens at all times, many cases may develop. Several foreign countries have strict regulations which prohibit importing infected dogs into the country. Rabies free areas in the world include Great Britain, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Australia, New Zealand and the Hawaiian Islands.

Two Types

There are two types of rabies in dogs and the public should be made aware of them. First is the best-known and also the most dangerous. This is known as "furious rabies" and is the kind in which the dog becomes irritable and excitable. If allowed to wander free, he may roam far, attacking anything that gets in his way. Paralysis follows and the dog usually dies within four to seven days.

The second form is called "dumb rabies" and the excitement stage is considerably short-

Planners Wait to Hear from People

Approval of plans for multiple-dwelling units at Sunberry Drive and Kamson Way was delayed by the Planning Commission Tuesday night because the residents who had originally objected to them were not present at the meeting.

The plans had been submitted by Philip Sondeno and were the results of a compromise that had been worked out between him and the protesting property owners. The Planning Commission acted as "mediator".

Sondeno had agreed to a cul-de-sac to satisfy the residents and because the people had also objected to large multiples, he had agreed to limit the multiples to one-story nearest the single-family residences in the tract.

The only change made by Sondeno from the original compromise was the overlapping by a two-story unit on one of the lots designated only one-story. Sondeno told the Commission that this plan was more attractive and he was certain the residents would not object to it.

However, Chairman Sam O'-Brien (with his fellow Planners agreeing) felt that because of their previous committment it was necessary that the attitude of the residents should be made known. Mrs. Evelyn Adamson, deputy city clerk, informed the Commission that she had informed the residents of the change and that it would be taken up at the meeting.

The Planners then agreed to act on the matter at their July 16 meeting, in the meantime getting a definite opinion from the residents. Sondeno also agreed to contact the people concerned and show the new plans.

Minister Honors KLOK at Luncheon

Approximately 100 ministers and business people gathered at the Congregational Church Tuesday noon to honor Radio KLOK with an "Appreciation" luncheon for its sponsorship of the Christian Brotherhood Hour for the last seven years.

Sponsors of the luncheon were Santa Clara County Council of Churches, the Twentieth Street Church of God, and the San Jose Ministerial Association.

Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barker, owners of the station; Dick Ryan, station manager; and Mrs. Hamilton Fish, program coordinator.

Dr. Dale Oldham, CBH radio pastor, and author, told the group he was vitally interested in the Christian Brotherhood Hour because it is a way of changing public opinion and bringing unity into a divided world, "a crying need of humanity."

Sewer Plans Accepted

Engineering plans and specifications for development of sewerage facilities in Campbell's Industrial Park have been accepted by the board of directors according to Steve Goodman, superintendent of Sanitation district 4.

Bids for the sewerage will be opened at 2:30 p.m. August 8 at a public hearing to be held in the Campbell elementary school cafetorium on North Third street.

The hearing concerns sewer connecting fees charged residents outside of cities and specifically, Bancroft avenue residents of Los Gatos who have attempted to use Los Gatos sewer facilities without paying the $200 connection fee required by the city.

At the next meeting of the board of directors on July 11, bids will be accepted for sewerage facilities at a new office and corporation building to be constructed on Sunnyoaks avenue.

Rotary "Debunks" Merv Willoughby And Reviews Year

Monday was "Debunking" day at Rotary, a day when incoming officers take over their duties and club members eagerly inflict indignities upon their outgoing president while reviewing his term of office. Neal Royer, newly installed president, conducted the meeting. Monday's martry was Merv Willoughby, who heard his term "debunked" while seated upon a "throne" wearing a mortar board and a gown covered with insurance polices, symbols of his livelihood.

His ordeal was softened, somewhat, with an eulogy on his accomplishments presented by Dr. Robert Jasmine who extolled Willoughby's leadership abilities as a presiding officer and his active participation in club functions and services.

A resume of the year showed an average attendance of 48 at meetings and a club membership of 34. Social events included a ballgame, barbecue, golf-swim day, a celebration on the Ben Strongs' 50th wedding anniversary, and the annual party.

Awards included 250 Citizen certificaes to students; cash donations to Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts; books to foreign countries; sports awards to outstanding players; and a Safety program which included erection of permanent signs, posters, street curb stencils, distribution of 2500 safety leaflets, and an essay-poster contest; and installation of a standard for club emblems.

Adventists to Hold Camp Meet

Pastor Andrew Dahl, of Campbell Seventh-day Adventist Church, is now at Soquel, near Santa Cruz, helping prepare for the annual Camp Meeting of the denomination which will convene there July 11 through 20.

Purpose of the Camp Meeting is to provide time for special emphasis on Bible study, meditation and prayer away from the regular daily routine of life, and to re-emphasize spiritual values and to renew consecration of church members.

A temporary "tent city" is being established on the 80-acre conference grounds to house hundreds of families who will take in the entire session.

Guest speakers will present sermons and lectures on all phases of daily living and special workshops on evangelism healthful living, and home and youth problems will be held daily.

WOMEN IN REAL ESTATE

The state Division of Real Estate reports women are taking an active position in the field, making up 19 1/3 per cent of May applications for brokers' licenses and 26 2/3 per cent of applications for salesman licenses during the month. The Division said men were more active in the specialized aspects of the industry and, for this and perhaps other reasons, averaged incomes about 25 per cent above those of the women.

August 6 Looms Big for Planners

Although still a month away, the Planning Commission meeting of Tuesday, August 6, looms as the one of the most important ones of the year. At least as far as the new industrial area of Campbell in concerned.

Four potential industrial builders in the area have had their applications before the Commission postponed until August 6 when the Commission hopes that plans for the area both as to streets and type of zoning will have crystallized.

At the Tuesday meeting this week, the Planners postponed action on the approval of plans of buildings for Jack H. Craig and Warren F. Brown. Their properties adjoin each other in the industrial area near the so-called White Oaks "cut-through".

Despite the pleas of both applicants who were present at the meeting for immediate action by the Planners, the Commission felt that no action should be taken until the master street plan was developed.

Brown in a fervent appeal said that he was certain that no street plan would affect their properties and that continued delays prevented them from utilizing the land. Craig also asked for a tentative approval of his plans so that he could have his engineer complete them.

The Commission, however, stood firm and postponed their decisions until August 6.

At a previous meeting, the Planners postponed until August 6 any action on the variance application of R. L. Townsend for a building at 750 Dell Ave. in the industrial park. At the same meeting action on the application for a warehouse building at 49 E. Parr, directly across from the Cascade Research property was delayed until August 6.

Salinas Starts Celebration With "Big Hat" Barbecue

Some 1800 rodeo enthusiasts consumed more than a ton of barbecued steak at the recent "Big Hat" barbecue in Salinas. Occasion was the start of the celebration of the 47th annual "Big Week" which reaches its climax in the middle of July with the rodeo scheduled July 11-14.

Special events in this year's rodeo include pony express races and relay and Roman chariot races. Other events planned are trick riders, Roman riders, and outstanding rodeo clowns. More than 300 rodeo performers are expected to compete in the six main events which include, saddle and bareback riding, calf and team roping, steer wrestling and bull riding.

New Presbyterian Church Organized In Cambrian Park

Trinity Presbyterian Church of Cambrian Park-Campbell was formally organized Sunday, June 23, culminating several months of intensive effort on the part of charter members of the fellowship and organizing minister, the Rev. John R. Chandler.

People in the area, whose normal affiliation is with the Presbyterian Church, recently established a fellowship at We and Our Neighbors Club, Los Gatos Road at Almaden, pending the construction of the new church on an eight acre site at the corner of Unian Ave. and Willister Road.

The organization ceremony of June 23 officially recognized the charter members of the new congregation, elected and ordained elders, deacons, and trustees; and established the fellowship as a Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

The organization service was conducted by representatives of a committee of the National Board of Missions of the local Presbytery. The Rev. Allen B. Philp acted as moderator, the Rev. Clarence A. Kircher offered the prayer, the Rev. W. Ward Murray received church members, the Rev. John R. Chandler confirmed baptismal vows, the Rev. Philip W. Barrett ordained elders, and the Rev. John R. McAmley ordained deacons.

An examining board, consisting of the Rev. Philip W. Barrett, the Rev. W. Ward Murray, Elder A. C. Brown and Elder Robert Lundy, met with the members uniting on affirmation or reaffirmation of faith.

The first infant baptism in the church is to be conducted by Rev. Chandler on July 7, at 10:00 a.m.

Trinity Presbyterian Church has already established and plans to maintain a number of local youth and adult groups. Charter membership will be available for residents until September 10.

Planners Advise Combining Forces

Three local property owners were told by the Planning Commission Tuesday night that, if they would join forces, the Planners would look with favor on their application for a change in zone from single-family to multiple dwellings. Individually, however, it was pointed out, their properties do not lend themselves to multiples, although they are adjacent to apartment houses now. The lots have not the adequate square footage.

The three property owners, Mrs. Evelyn Sylvia, Lilly B. La Veque and W. Harwick, had applied for the zone change for their three lots at Esther and Latimer avenues. Mrs. LaVeque told the Planners that they were unable to get their money out of their residential properties now as they butted against apartments. Mrs. Sylvia was also present at the meeting.

With the Commission's blessing the two women said that when they found a buyer for all three lots, they would again appear before the Commission.

Dogs and Rabies

er. This type causes the dog to hide and there is little tendency to bite due to a paralysis of the lower jaw. Death usually occurs two to three days after symptoms appear.

Once the symptoms develop in man or animal, there is no cure since the disease is 100 per cent fatal.

In the event a person is bitten by a dog he should cleanse the wound with soap and running water and consult a physician as soon as possible. The County Health Department or the city police should be notified immediately. The dog should not be killed but held under observation for fourteen days. The Pasteur treatment should not be started until it is certain that the dog shows signs of the disease.

In the past, anti-rabies clinics have been established by the county, however, none are scheduled for this area in the immediate future. The Blossom Valley Animal Clinic on San Jose-Los Gatos Road in Campbell charges $3.00 for the vaccination which is valid for two years.

Report to County

Wandering dogs or dogs that appear to have rabies should be reported immediately to the Rabies Control Division, County Health Department and a truck will be dispatched to pick up the animal.

Yes, rabies is seldom mentioned by the man on the street or the housewife, but to the many who have undergone the painful Pasteur treatment, it is an experience they will never forget.

You can do your part by having your dog inoculated and licensed as required by law and reporting any stray animals immediately. This will help eliminate possible threats to the safety of your family and neighbors and effectively protect your animal against the disease.

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS
TENTH DISTRICT, CALIFORNIA

In the bull ring the bright red cape serves a very practical purpose of diverting the bull's attention from the real target, the matador. Sometimes Congressional amendments to important bills do the same thing. This is the case with the so-called "jury trial" amendment to the Civil Rights Bill which the House recently debated.

It is a known fact that Southern Negroes are deprived of their constitutional right to vote through manipulation of registers and poll books by southern registrars. The Civil Rights Bill would set up a commission which would determine when these voting rights were about to be violated. Then the attorney general could go into a federal court and secure a court order requiring that the local registrar perform his constitutional duty. Note that no one has asked for a jury trial at this stage of the game. Even Southerners will admit that our system of jurisprudence has been built upon the principle that this is a suit in equity and that no jury trial is necessary to require that a public official conform with the law. The court order does not punish a local registrar for violating a law, it merely tells him to comply with it! The effect of the amendment would be that if an election official defied the court order and was therefore held to be in contempt of court, he could demand a jury trial.

Jury trials never decide matters of law, they only decide whether the facts of a case indicate that a law has been violated. If a court orders you to stop throwing garbage on your front lawn in violation of the law and you defy the court, what is there for a jury to decide? The question of fact (whether you did or did not throw garbage on your front lawn) was decided at the original hearing. Now the only question is did you defy the court?

Jury trials have never been granted on contempt proceedings where the Federal government is involved. (One exception is labor disputes under the Norris-LaGuardia Act, later repealed by the Taft-Hartley Law.) Yet no person has said that our system of jurisprudence has not been fair and just. What then is all the hubbub? The amendment is obviously a move to allow officials to violate the law, and seek a jury trial in the hope that the jury will join the official in his disrespect for the law of the land! Its sponsors obviously hope to confuse the issue by causing the public to believe that its sacred right to a jury trial has been denied when it never existed in the first place. Behind this smokescreen they hope to continue their violation of the Constitution which is also sacred to all Americans. I hope we are smarter than the bulls because behind that bright red cape is a very sharp stiletto!

THE STORY BEHIND THE FIGURES
As shown in our June 30, 1957 Statement of Condition, Bank of America's resources have climbed to $10,028,279,418—leading those of any other banking institution by a wide margin.
This figure represents the combined financial strength of the hundreds of individual neighborhood Bank of America branches throughout California—each branch an integral part of its own community and dedicated to providing banking service for all depositors, regardless of size.
Serving the many, the idea upon which Bank of America was founded more than 50 years ago, has proved itself in the millions of small deposits which today make up BofA's record-breaking resources.
DOLLARS AT WORK
All Bank of America's resources are busy—through this branch and other branches throughout California—making loans to business and industry, loans to farmers, home-builders, and providing needed dollars for every worth-while purpose. Some of this money goes for school and municipal bonds—some goes for United States Government Bonds, but every cent contributes, in some way, to building California and serving you.
B of A Quiz Corner
DID YOU KNOW THAT Bank of America offers you a total of more than 50 different banking services—many of them unique with Bank of America? 'Finian's Rainbow' Opens in Oakland

"Finian's Rainbow", the whimsical musical comedy built around a pot of gold an Irishman has spirited away from the leprechauns and brought to America, opens the summer music season at Woodminster, Oakland's outdoor theater, in Joaquin Miller Park, July 12, 13, 19, and 20, at 8:30 p.m.

Humorous wishes come true in "Finian's Rainbow", which is directed by John M. Falls. Through the rumor of the existence of gold in the ground of the idyllic valley to which Finian McLonergan has come to bury his treasure, the glittering pot of gold works magic for all the poor tenant farmers who dwell there. The show is a blithe mixture of tuneful songs and leprechauns laced with quaint Irish humor and American exuberance.

It Takes a Joint Effort

Most of us have a good reason for living in Campbell. It may be business, climate, proximity to place of employment or some other factor.

It then follows that those of us who live here (or even those who derive their income from here) should strive to do everything possible to improve our community.

We consider this a basic precept. Consequently, we have repeated it time and again in these columns.

We find, however, that many local residents appear disinterested in their own community.

This is not unique in Campbell. It is a common failing among residents of almost every community in the country. In very few towns is community pride so dominant that all the residents unite in any common objective.

The fault sometimes lies in the fact that the objectives are often indefinite ones or are too general for the average person to get his teeth into.

Perhaps that has been the weakness in the Campbell picture.

However, the City of Campbell faces a civic improvement bond issue next fall that has a definite objective: to-wit, to obtain the needed improvements for the city. We think all civic-minded persons should join forces to make this a successful undertaking.

There are other definite objectives for betterment of the town. That is one of the reasons we have reprinted the article, "How Good Is Our Business Climate."

Campbell needs so much. This is one of the advantages in living here. So much lies ahead of us, despite the fact that the town as such is fairly old as towns go in California.

We need better recreational facilities. We have often said it is a dirty shame that the one motion picture house has stayed idle for so long. We admit that movies have their bad points; but, heck, we enjoy 'em once in a while and we think most of you do. It's too bad we can't see a show in our town.

We have grand schools (everyone seems to concede that) but outside of the schools there is no place available for community activities.

Our shopping centers are limited. And the list can go on and on.

But it takes a joint effort to get these improvements.

So far, any joint push has been pretty creaky.

How Good Is Our Business Climate?

The Press is indebted to Mrs. Evelyn Adamson, deputy city clerk, for calling attention to the following article that was printed in the June issue of the "Western City Magazine".

Entitled, "The Business Climate of Cities Determines Locations of Plants", the author, Clarence C. Walker, a vice-president of General Electric, cites some salient points that should be considered when it comes to "business climate".

How good is the business climate in your city, county and state? Here are some of the elements to consider:

1. Honest and efficient government supported by a safe majority of alert, intelligent voters who have the community interests at heart, with an absence of unreasonable restrictive regulations or financial handicaps imposed by the local, state and federal governments.

2. A realistically progressive attitude on the part of political, religious and professional leaders toward sound community growth and city planning, along with citizen understanding of community and business problems.

3. Adequate community services and facilities, such as banks, hotels, utilities, shopping facilities, health facilities and the required commercial services needed in operating businesses.

4. A sound working relationship between employers and employees as evidenced by an absence of unwarranted strikes and slowdowns over a number of years.

5. An adequate supply of properly educated people in good physical condition who have a good work attitude who will fill employment needs and who have a good understanding of how our business system operates and their stake in its success.

6. Wage and salary rates and payment methods which are fair to employees and at the same time provide opportunity for employers to operate profitably.

7. A social and cultural atmosphere that will attract and hold good professional employees.

8. A serious minded assumption of business citizenship responsibilities on the part of all employers as evidenced by consistently good employee relations and courageous leadership in civic and political affairs.

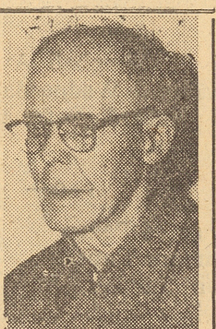
These eight points for business climate measurement have been used by industry as guides for picking new sites for many years. But now businessmen and local leaders are challenged to use these eight elements as a means of measuring their local business climates — to spot weaknesses and then strengthening them.

What is to be done about a community's business climate and where does it start?

The four-step plan generally in use is: 1. To appraise the local business climate. 2. To determine from the appraisal specific local objectives, both short and long range. 3. To plan and schedule community, business and individual activities to accomplissh these objectives. 4. To develop a multi-employer community wide program for improving the local business climate.

Over the Years



By John D. Blaine

In this column of June 20 I described my delight at signs of business progress in Campbell, especially at noise, traffic congestion, and what not. One thing, however completely slipped my mind.

Dust, dust, dust!

Dust has been pouring into my home as a sign of progress toward a new building for our bank. This dust has been raised by a bulldozer clearing off the bank lot.

Thrill of eating this dust on the very hottest days has been very great, so much so that it has taken my appetite for anything else. In the first three days of this dust diet I lost pounds.

This dust has been heavy and rich. The right sort of plant would extract nourishment from this dust, but I am not a plant.

However, there is nourishment in the cultural, spiritual, mental interpretations, all three. Such nourishment can contribute to my self-improvement.

It was self-improvement I had in mind when I spoke of my delight in noise and other signs of business and professional success in Campbell. Long ago it was said, "What can't be cured must be endured." The practice of endurance gives us that excellent human quality known as fortitude.

Sometimes we speak of it as guts.

Although I can't digest dust, I can extract self-improvement from enduring it if I have the guts.

Self-improvement is more popular than we are apt to think. Those publc service jobs that go unpaid may be done out of urge for self-improvement. Such jobs include membership on school boards.

Even our City Dads may at least unconsciously have the urge for self-improvement. Suppose we give them credit for it. The fact is we all need some kind of public or social service to keep us in health. Hence people even compete for unpaid public or social service jobs.

Urge to self-improvement is at bottom.

Public service jobs often bring upon their holders more or less criticism, and are therefore called "thankless." Here again, therefore, is need of guts.

Public servants learn by experience. Rank and file of citizens need patience. Here again is need of guts.

I have a weakness of admiration for people who have guts. To return to Nelson Brothers Trucking, I have learned since I wrote about these brothers before that they started with one truck and a used one at that.

Their success has been no accident. They had it in them from the first, and they have added to it. They might, of course, be spoiled by success. It has been said that nothing succeeds like success. It could also be said that nothing fails like success.

Not many people can stand long prosperity. I just happened to think of something said of Americans back in 1929. I quote:

"No nation—no more than any individual — ever became great without undergoing periods of severe trial. And owing to the singular prosperity prevailing today in America, she stands in need of corresponding great difficulties in order to outgrow or burst that shell of narrowness which is the inevitable fate of the satiated."

The book from which I quote was hardly dry off the presses when our nation plunged into our great depression. That depression was not over when we plunged into World War II. And we have been in one kind of severe trial or another ever since.

Certainly we are not now the narrow people we were in 1929. We had then said we would never help Europe again. We have burst our shell and for Europe shelled out billions.

Perhaps there are some narrow shells in Campbell that will have to be burst by periods of severe trial. We are having some severe trials now and more are on the way.

To deal with these trials will be fun if we have the guts.

Our reward, of course, will be self-improvement.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PLANNER SPEAKS OUT

George Vierhus, Editor
The Campbell Press
Dear George:

The following is an open letter to the citizens of the City of Campbell and the contiguous area, written in the belief that the average citizen is in no way familiar with the proposed new zoning classification to be added to the zoning ordinance of the city, which if adopted, is to be called "CM" or Controlled Manufacturing District, the proposed new district having just been approved for adoption by the Planning Commission.

It is the belief of the writer that the final approval or disapproval of the proposed "CM" District classification is of vital importance to every citizen of the community and will directly affect the type of residential growth and the living conditions in the community through all the years to come. The writer, as just one member of the Planning Commission, would urge the citizens to familiarize themselves with the ordinance, attend the public hearings, read the news comments and editorials in the Campbell Press to acquire an understanding of the importance of the matter, and let their wishes be known.

It is my opinion as a member of the Planning Commission that our obligation is to plan, to the best of our ability, for the general benefit of the city as a whole, which of course means the welfare of all the citizens.

The primary reason for manufacturing and industry in the city is twofold—"Tax Base" to lighten the tax load on home owners, and "Payroll" to increase the economic volume, thereby benefitting all types of business. It is therefore our obligation as an advisory body to the City Council, to determine the type of control which will, in our judgment, attract industry of the highest and most substantial type, keeping in mind the above factors, and which will at the same time protect the aesthetic appearance of the city and thereby, property values of home owners, business and industry alike.

The proposed "CM" classification, in brief, provides control over smoke, noise, odors, vibration, glare, dust, fumes, gases, radioactivity and electrical disturbances to a degree which will render them non-detrimental to good living and working conditions. Also controlled are fire and explosion hazards, type of construction, yard areas, signs, landscaping, parking and loading, fencing, material storage, land coverage and minimum area or acreage limitations.

"CONTROLLED MANUFACTURING" as such is neither "a new and untried thing" nor "Utopian". There are many examples of such districts, both municipal and private, many of them with much more restrictive controls than those contained in the proposed new classification, detailed reports of EXPERIENCE RESULTS of such zoning controls being available for study.

The proposed "CM" District controls are the result of months of cooperative work by the planning commissions of Campbell and Los Gatos, and particularly intensive study by a joint committee from the two commissions in cooperation with planning consultant Nestor Barrett who serves both commissions.

It is the considered opinion of the writer that the restrictive controls will result not only in better living conditions for the citizens of Campbell, but in the long run, better operating and working conditions for manufacturer and employee, much greater and more permanent investment, better land prices in any area in which such controls may in the future be established, and therefore that the restrictive controls will, in the final analysis, result in more tax base and more payroll.

Sincerely,
LES

LOTS OF PAINT

(CNS—The State Department of Finance said 116,450 gallons of paint has been ordered to fill the state's requirements of traffic lacquer for six months. Of this total, 63,950 gallons will be used in northern California and 52,500 gallons will be used in the southern part of the state.

OUT on the LIMB with George Vierhus

Last week we ran a story about the 16-year old Campbell youth who was apprehended by the local police breaking into his parents' garage. The parents had previously reported him as a run-away and had turned over to the police a virtual arsenal they had found in their son's room.

The police reported that when the youth was picked up he was also armed with one of his pet weapons.

In this issue we are running a close-up picture of the weapons that were found. We had examined them close-hand previously and they made our blood chill.

There will be some who will question the advisability of picturing the dangerous weapons in the paper. They say such a pictorial display will give others ideas.

We don't agree. Consequently prominently displayed in this issue is the particular collection of a local 16-year old.

We hold that an individual must be warped mentally to have gathered such an arsenal in the first place and, if there are others, who are similarly warped, picture or no picture will make little difference.

—o—

Any one of the items would do severe harm and it is possible that the horrible looking chain should be, if it is not, classified as a deadly weapon, especially in the hands of a warped youth.

"When I advanced on the guy," the Campbell police officer told us. "I had my gun at ready."

Nice recommendation for a teen-ager.

Fortunately these hoodlums are few and far between and the vast majority of youths of today are no better or worse than they were a generation ago.

But these few bad apples certainly cause a lote of furrowed brows among us all.

—o—

We attended the annual "debunking" ceremony of the Campbell Rotary Club on Monday and enjoyed ourself immensely.

Merv Willoughby, outgoing president, was given the works in the traditional manner. We noticed that Neal Royer, who took office as the new president enjoyed the fun, but not as much as the other members. Neal was probably looking forward to 12 months hence when he would be the scapegoat.

Wives of the members were guests and they were fittingly introduced.

We particularly appreciated it when George Miskulin introduced his wife, Virginia (under duress and with a pointed suggestion from the chair) as his daughter.

That reminded us that we still have a score to settle with Norm Stoner, local and San Jose attorney who was recently elected to the elementary school board.

—o—

Sometime ago our little wife, Dorothy, and the teen-age daughter of the Bob Locke's, our next door neighbors, were in our office when Norm Stoner came in. Both Dorothy and Linda were in pedal-pushers and eating ice-cream cones.

Norm introduced himself and wondered whether the two gals were our daughters.

Thoroughly enjoying the mistaken identity our Dorothy set matters straight but not before she was certain we had overheard.

Norm quickly recovered and suggestted that "the newspaper business must be good for George to keep his wife so young-looking."

But the damage had already been done.

For some reason the story has been told and retold in our household on suitable occasions. By suitable we simply mean whenever there is an appreciative audience (that is, one person or more) around to enjoy it.

We understand that Norm is thinking seriously about running for judge at the next election.

We might point out that he has started out very well in corralling the women votes. At our house anyway.

But we haven't reached a decision.

—o—

Recently when the Interstate Indemnity Company pulled its mobile driver-testing unit onto the Nelson Bros. Trucking lot to test the drivers of the trucking firm, we hustled over to see the test in action.

We shot a picture just as Walter Schmid and Eldred Nelson, of the trucking firm, had completed their tests. (We ran the picture last week)

We were easily prevailed upon to take a couple of the tests. We are happy to report (despite conflicting reports of those who know us very well) that the tests showed that we were above average when it comes to driving.

The tests were conducted by Roy G. Finley and Jim McDaniel, safety engineers of the company, and such things as peripheral vision (we found out that means side-vision, Junior), psychophysical, reaction time, depth perception, glare resistance, etc. were tested.

It is a comprehensive examination and we learned that the mobile unit moves all over the state, doing both an educational and revealing job.

We would like to see it move back here some time and test just the average drivers, especially those who blast their way through on the highways today.

It might make some of the more blustering characters who throng the roads do a little thinking.

They could stand it. Provided, of course, they have something to think with.

WHICH is doubtful in many cases.

Bette White Weds Russell Werner In Reno Ceremony

Back from their honeymoon trip and awaiting completion of their new home in Westbrook Manor are the newly wed Mr. and Mrs. Russell Werner who were married recently in Reno, Nevada.

The bride is the former Bette White, owner of the Pink Thimble Cleaner on Winchester Road. Werner is affiliated with the Lyndon Hotel in Los Gatos.

Attending the couple at the ceremony were Mrs. Ellen Werner, mother of the groom, and Manuel Gonsalves of Felton.

For her wedding, Bette wore Russian sable furs over a matching beige Christian Dior suit of light weight cashmere featuring a pencil-slim skirt and fitted jacket styled with tab trim. Her accessories were matching beige. A bridal corsage of chartreuse orchids and gold ribbons completed her costume.

Mother of the groom, Mrs. Werner, selected a navy blue suit with white accessories and pinned on a corsage of white gardenias.

Square Dancers Attend Picnic

Caller Cliff Trandberg and his "Jay Walkers", a square dance club, along with other local square dancers, were guest performers at the Division Heating and Sheet Metal annual picnic held at Searsville Lake in Palo Alto last Sunday.

The group gave exhibitions of dancing and also instructed some new dancers so that they could join in the fun.

Capt. James Olds Visits Parents

Capt. James Olds, USMC, flew in from Quantico, Virginia, last week to visit his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Corwin Olds, of 210 N. Second Street, and take his first year law examination at the University of California. He has now returned to Virginia.

Reverend Olds, who also bears the rank of Brig. Gen. Corwin Olds, U. S. A. (ret.) arrived home from California Cadet Camp just in time for his son's visit, after acting as chaplain for 1600 boys at the summer camp at San Luis Obispo.

O.E.S. Honors Past Officers

Past matrons and patrons were honored at the June 28 meeting of Campbell Chapter 553, Order of Eastern Star. For the occasion, regular officers relinquished their stations to the past officers for opening and closing ceremonies.

Presiding over the meeting were Mrs. Harold Adams, worthy matron, and Fred Johnson, worthy patron.

The June meeting was the last for the summer. The chapter will be dark until September 6.

Past matrons and patrons escorted and presented in the East were: Mesdames Vernon

Service Club Seats Officers

New officers of the Campbell Women's Service Club were installed June 26 at a luncheon and swim party held at the home of Mrs. Herman Y. Rice, 18920 Sunnybrook, the outgoing president. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Rice were Mrs. Ernest Foreman and Mrs. Dean Chamberlin.

New president of the club is Miss Ruby Howes. She will be assisted in her duties during the year by Mesdames Lawrence Quinsland, first vice-president; J. K. Peterson, second vice-president; Boyd Fair, secretary; Olive Buehner, treasurer; and Howard Guilbert, historian.

Following installation, Mrs. Rice was presented with a gift from the club by Mrs. George French.

The club will adjourn for the rest of the summer and resume its meetings in September.

Brownies Become Girl Scouts in 'Fly-up' Ceremony

Fourth grade Brownie Troop 136 of St. Lucy's School recently became Intermediate Girl Scouts in an original "Fly-Up" ceremony attended by a majority of parents.

The girls were seated in two "bird nests" formed by chairs placed in circles with burlap sacking decked with ivy covering the outer back side. Upon mention of her name each girl "flew" forth to be congratulated by the leader, Mrs. Herbert Mabie, and presented with her year pin, wings, and Girl Scout pin. Mrs. Robert Costa, co-leader, later fastened the pins on the girls' banner which is worn diagonally across the front of the uniform.

The following girls were invested: Carlynne Blaisdell, Kathy Boitano, Karen Costa, Patricia Feasby, Charlotte Humphrey, Marlene Mabie, Laurie McNiff, Dolores Rubio, Karen Bogner, Cathy Lynn Clark, Mary Lynn Farber, Diane Howell, Therese Lejko, Patricia Mathews, Marie Olmetti, Concetta Vaccero, and Kay Yerkovich.

One member of the eighteen-girl troop was unable to attend the ceremony.

After the program, Mrs. Joseph Clark was introduced to the parents as the new leader for the rest of '57 and '58. Her co-leaders will be Mesdames John Vaccero and Arthur Rubio. Mesdames George Lejko, James Feasby, and Angelo Pestarino form the group committee.

As a parting gift from the former Brownie troop, Mrs. Clark presented Mesdames Mabie, Costa and Joseph Humphrey, with a Girl Scout pen and pencil set in recognition of their three years service as leaders for the girls.

Theta Rho Girls Planning Picnic

Fidelis Theta Rho Girls' Club made final plans for a picnic to be held July 8 at Saratoga Springs or Laurel Park when they met Wednesday, June 26. Sponsor of the picnic is Bud Weeks, a member of IOOF and supporter of the group.

The club also decided to hold an initiation the second Wednesday in August with Cynthia Lyons as a candidate.

Marilyn Gilpatrick, past president and state musician, reported on a recent visit to the San Francisco Theta Rho Club and its impressive Initiation ceremony.

The club is now selling "Golden Crumbles", a peanut-butter mixture candy. The price is reasonable and anyone interested in buying some of the candy can contact Mrs. Ray Gilpatrick at FR 8-4829 for information.

After the meeting, Mrs. Bud Scribner, the former Mary Ervin, received felicitations from the club on her recent marriage and was presented with a gift.

Keith Marcusons Visiting Parents

Visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marcuson, 716 White Oaks Road, is their son, Capt. Keith Marcuson, USAF, his wife, Lorraine, and their children, Robert, Christa, David and Laurie Ann, of Riverside, California. Captain Marcuson is stationed at March Field.

In honor of the visit Mrs. Marcuson, Sr., gave a dinner party last Sunday for members of the family.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marcuson, Jr. of Cambrian Park, their children Mary, Douglas, Dennis and Janet; and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bitzer of Campbell.

Morgans Feted on 25th Anniversary

Just returned from a two week fishing trip to Idaho are Dr. and Mrs. Wyland R. Morgan and son, Gene, of Largo Vista Ave., Los Gatos.

Prior to their fishing trip, Dr. and Mrs. Morgan celebrated their 25th anniversary on June 11 with a dinner party at their hill-top home for twenty-six of their friends.

In honor of the occasion, the Morgans were presented with two antique silver pieces and a silvered, flower-decked money tree.

BPWC Barbecue Benefits Fund For Resuscitator

Campbell Business and Professional Women collected a tidy sum of cash last Wednesday evening by holding a "white elephant" penny auction after a barbecue dinner.

Proceeds are ear-marked for a fund to help purchase a new resuscitator for the City of Campbell which a number of local service clubs are sponsoring.

An annual affair, the barbecue was held at the home of Clarence and Hannah Berglund, 141 Carlyn Ave., with husbands as invited guests.

Two guests greatly appreciated by the club were the genial host, Clarence Berglund, who served as head chef, and Building Inspector W. L. (Bud) Morser who not only helped barbecue but also cooked a huge pot of ham and beans for the dinner.

In charge of dinner arrangements were Mesdames Hannah Berglund, Alice Schmidt, Alma Harrison, Cleo Morser, Vivian Faulkner, and Skipper Benson.

Sole absentees were the two older Stoner boys who are visiting their paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stoner, in Santa Barbara.

MONEY TO BURN?

"Of course I can fiddle while Rome burns," Emperor Nero said. "I keep my money in Athens."

The slightly scorched Senator brushed a spark from his toga before replying. "Not very convenient."

Nero nodded sadly. "Commuting to Athens for cash has been rough on my Roman arches."

"I keep my travel funds in Bank of America Travelers Cheques," the Senator said with a superior, soot-smeared smile. "Can't be lost, destroyed or stolen!"

"But they won't be invented for almost 2,000 years!"

"B of A Travelers Cheques are always good—no matter how old they are!"

Nero shook his head in wonder. "With such brilliant men around me I don't see how my empire can ever decline and fall!"

Cambrian Park Wins First Half Babe Ruth Play

John Ezzie pitched a two-hitter last week to lead Cambrian Park to a 10-0 win over West Valley and the first-half championship of the Campbell-Los Gatos Babe Ruth League. Avila's beat the Burbank Lions 6-2. Burbank was tied with Cambrian for first place as the week's play began.

Ransome got a three run triple in the sixth when Valley tallied five runs. Ron Stewart hit safely three times for the losers.

Ezzie was virtually untouchable in the championship playoff holding West Valley to two hits and no runs. Cambrian started off with three runs in the first, two in the third, one in the sixth and four tallies in the top of the seventh to complete the day's scoring. Ezzie got two hits including a double to lead his team.

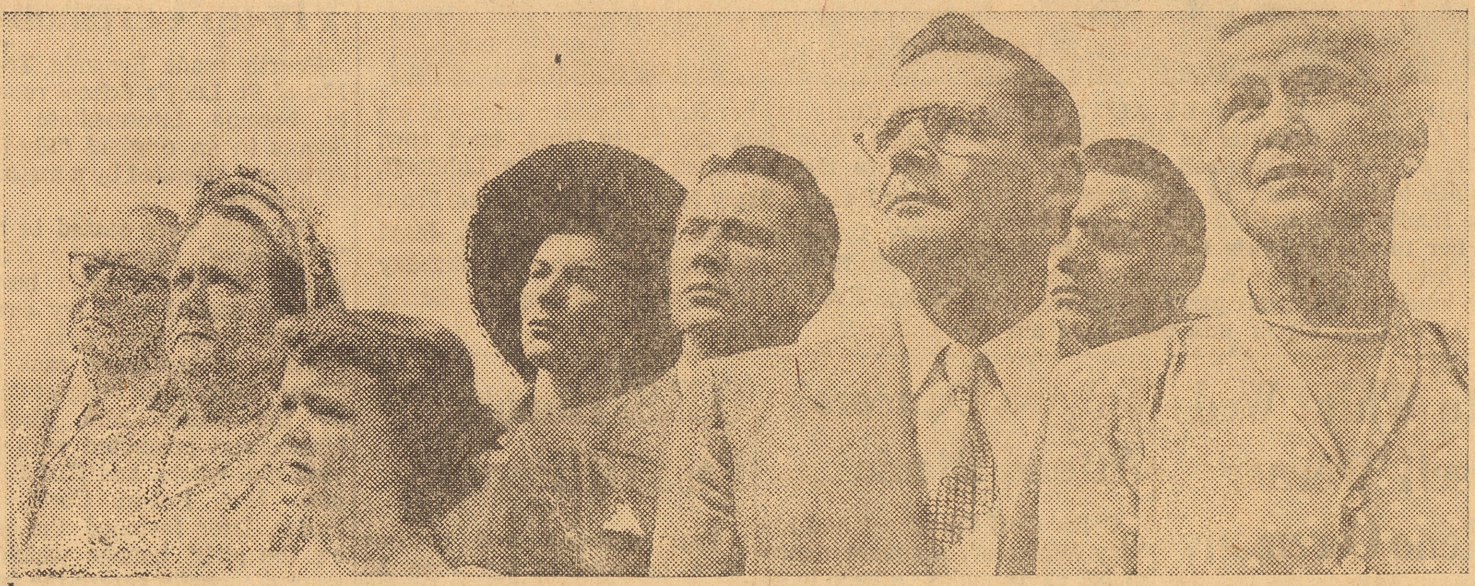
PRIMER FOR AMERICANS



You live in the United States of America. You are an American.

Real Americans like their country. They are proud of it. They think it is a good place to live. And they want to keep it good —to keep it getting better all the time.

Why is America the way it is? What makes it a good place to live? The answer is simply this:

> Throughout our history most Americans have believed that every person has certain rights and duties and responsibilities.
>
> Americans have believed that there are certain things people should do, and things they should not do.
>
> They have also believed in certain things that people are, and are not.

These things that people believe are called principles. This book is an attempt to state the Principles of America in simple, primer fashion so that you can understand them, learn them, and remember them.

This is important. It was because earlier Americans believed in these principles and guided their lives by them, that America has grown to be the good place it is.

If all of us learn and remember these principles—if we also guide our lives by them—then we can help to keep America growing better, and better, and better.

And if we follow these Principles of America, we can help make the world a better place to live in, too.

The Principles of America are these . . .

1. Each Person is of Importance and Value as an Individual.

This is the cornerstone . . . the foundation of all our other beliefs in a person's right to live his own life, to speak for himself, to choose and change his leaders.

From it comes our hatred of those "isms" under which the individual has no value or importance as a person, but is only one of many unimportant people who have to live the way their leaders tell them to.

Coming directly from that first principle are two others that are also part of the foundation of Americanism.

2. We Believe that All Men should Enjoy Personal Freedom.

3. We Believe that All Men are Created Equal.

It is worth noting that the Declaration of Independence expressed the belief that "all men are created equal." It did not state or imply a belief that men develop equally or have equal ability, or that they should ever be forced to an exact equality of thought, speech or material possessions.

That would be equality without freedom. Americans have always believed the two should go together.

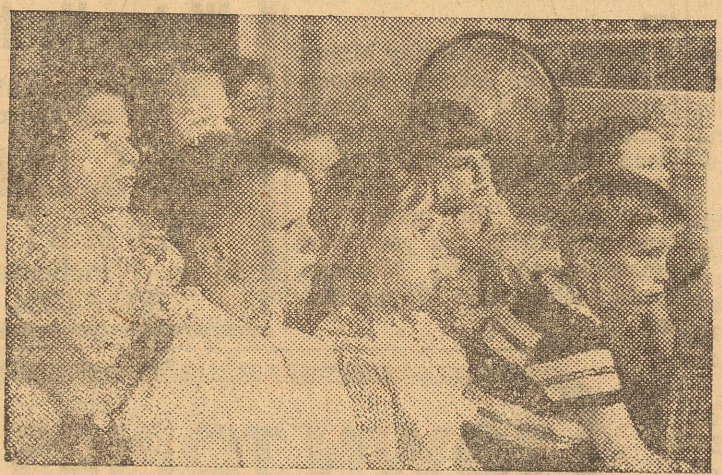
In our Constitution, and in other laws of our land, there are set down principles to protect the rights and freedoms and equality of individuals.

4. The Right to Freedom of Speech.

This includes freedom of the press, of radio, of motion pictures, of every means by which man may express his thoughts.

5. The Right to Freedom of Assembly.

As we believe in the right of individual action, so we believe that individuals should be free to act together.



6. The Right to Freedom of Worship.

Not only is the individual free to worship as he will, but religions themselves are free and equal.

7. The Right to Security of Person and Property.

Not just one, but three Amendments to the Constitution (4th, 5th and 14th) protect against illegal search and seizure, or loss of life, liberty, or property, without "due process of law."

8. The Right to Equal Protection before the Law.

As individuals are equally important, so laws must apply equally to all, without special privileges for any group.

9. The Right to Freedom from Slavery.

This includes "the right to quit," for no individual may be forced to work for another.

10. The Right to Petition the Government.

The right of the individual to "petition the government for redress of grievances" is evidence of the American belief that government is the servant, not the master, of the people.

11. The Right to Vote for people of your choice.

This is the individual's most potent weapon in the protection of his rights and freedoms . . . a weapon that to be effective must be constantly and wisely used.

Other Principles hold that every man has . . .

12. The Right to a Good Education.
13. The Right to Live where he pleases.
14. The Right to Work where he wants to.
15. The Right to Belong to an Organization.
16. The Right to Own Property.
17. The Right to Start his Own Business.
18. The Right to Manage his Own Affairs.
19. The Right to Make a Profit or to Fail, depending on his Own Ability.

There are other, similar rights of individual action which are Principles of America, but all of these individual rights may be combined in these two broad principles . . .

20. Every Man is entitled to Freedom and Equality of Opportunity.

21. Every Man may Earn his Living When, Where, and How he wants to.

There are also Limiting Principles . . .

Principles of individual freedom sometimes clash with those of individual equality. Therefore our rights as individuals must be limited, and those limitations are themselves principles.

22. The Rights of any Individual shall not Interfere with those of Other Individuals.

Your right to swing your arms stops where the other fellow's nose starts.

23. The Rights of any Individual shall not Interfere with the Welfare of the People.

Freedom of speech does not give the individual the right to shout "fire" in a crowded theatre.

24. Every Individual owes Obedience to the Laws under which he Lives.

The individual has the right to talk against a law, to work and vote to change that law, but NOT to disobey that law.

Principles that are Patterns of Behavior . . .

Many of our principles of individual freedom and equality are guaranteed to us by law. But we have other beliefs, other general rules of action and conduct that have grown to the status of principles. And these too, are foundations of Americanism.

25. A Man shall be Judged by his Own Record.

A man's family background, his race or his religion, is not as important as what that man himself can do, for Americans believe a man must stand on his own feet.

26. A Man is Free to Achieve as much as he can.

We believe that where any boy may become President, where any man may achieve greatness, there is the greatest incentive for every man to do his best.

27. To Achieve anything, a Man should be Willing to Work.

Americans have always known that "you don't get something for nothing," that to get anything takes a willingness to work.

28. Achievement also Depends upon the Ability to do a Good Job.

Add to "willingness to work" the ability to produce results and the combination is the basis for most individual achievement in our country.

29. Every Man has the Right to a Fair Share of the Results of his Work and his Ability.

Because of this belief, America has not only produced more goods, but they have been more fairly and more widely shared by more people than in any other country.

30. Security is the Ability of a Man to Provide for himself.

The only true security for any individual is the opportunity, the ability, and the determination to work and plan and save for his own present and future. Self-reliance is vital to individual independence and personal freedom. No man can be "proud and free" who depends on others for his security.

31. When an Individual cannot Provide his own Security, the Responsibility should be Assumed by Others.

We believe that no one should starve, or be without adequate clothing and shelter, so those who have more than their basic needs share the responsibility of providing the essentials of security for those who need help.

32. Each Individual must Deal Fairly with others.

Honesty, fairness, and personal integrity are virtues that help free and independent individuals get along with each other without losing their independence.

33. Fair and Free Competition is a Good Thing.

Americans have always believed that competition among individuals or groups encourages greater effort which in turn brings greater benefits to all.

34. Cooperation among Individuals is Vital.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER has said: "The freedom to compete vigorously accompanied by a readiness to cooperate wholeheartedly for the performance of community and national functions, together make our system the most productive on earth."

Principles of Individual Responsibility . . .

Freedom for individuals carries with it an equal responsibility to use that freedom wisely. If we wish to remain free, we must faithfully fulfill this responsibility.

35. The Individual is Responsible for himself and his Family.

He must protect them and provide for their present and future well-being.

36. The Individual has Responsibilities to the Groups of which he is a Part.

He must give of his best to his community, his church, his employer, his union, and to every group in which individuals cooperate for their mutual benefit.

37. The Individual has Responsibilities to his Country.

He must be an active citizen, interesting himself in local, state, and national government, voting wisely, thinking and speaking and acting to preserve and strengthen freedom, equality and opportunity for every individual.

38. The Individual has Responsibilities to the World.

Man's horizons have expanded. What happens in the world affects him, and his actions can affect the world. Today, therefore, each man has a responsibility to act—and to encourage his country to act—so that freedom and cooperation will be encouraged among the people and the nations of the world.

For America's Future

Most of us have faith in our country's ability to move forward, to improve, to grow, to provide more and more individuals with more and more of everything they want and need in life . . .

If we, the people of the United States, want to have more material benefits, we must believe in and follow these two principles:

39. The only way we can Have More is to Produce More; and

40. As we Produce More, we must make it possible for More and More People to Enjoy that which we Produce.

If we, the people of the United States, want to have a better life, spiritually as well as materially . . .

41. We must stand firmly for our Beliefs, our Rights, our Principles.

There are those who would chip away our confidence so that their special brand of tyranny might creep into America. They must not succeed. So, let us ask of every plan, or act, or idea . . .

Is it With or Against the Principles of America?

Family Problems Feature Alcazar Theatre Comedy

"The Reluctant Debutante", which is the next attraction at the Alcazar Theatre, beginning Wednesday evening, July 10, was originally produced in London in May 1955 and enjoyed a smash-hit run of nearly two years. Gilbert Miller produced it in New York this past season where it had a highly successful run at the Henry Miller Theatre.

Randolph Hale, after the record-breaking run of his production of "Anniversary Waltz", ever on the look out for delightfully funny comedies dealing with hilarious every-day situations in family relationships, immediately obtained the rights to present this modern young lady to West Coast and national audiences.

"The Reluctant Debutante" finds all the humor in the ever-present problem of "getting your daughter married", and, most importatnt of all, to the right husband. When Mother plans the maximum exposure to desirable young men for her uninterested daughter she inadvertently arranges a tryst between Jane and a young libertine. The consequences almost unhinge her mind.

It's great fun with captivating appeal to any and all parents who are or are going to be in the same situation, as well as to all daughters who have been or are about to be faced with these problems and the family concern and interference that goes with it all. The ever-present boy friends that cluster around any attracive young miss will also find a ready identification with their counterparts on stage.

Best of all, however, is the fact that whether or not you are currently in these situations, you and everyone else will enjoy an evening of delightful hilarity with "The Reluctant Debutante".

Heading the cast are Reginald Gardiner and Brenda Forbes, brilliant and experienced hands at sophisticated farce comedy, who play "Pop' and 'Mom'. In addition to the two stars the play introduces a bright new personality in charming Lynn Bailey as their daughter, the "reluctant debutante", as well as Liam Sullivan as the "reputation-menacing young man".
